LINCOLN — Dennis Morgan, Publisher of the Elgin Review, has been elected president of the Nebraska Press Association. Dennis Morgan succeeds Rod Worrell of the Ainsworth Star-Journal. He was elected at the state press convention Friday in Lincoln.

Other officers elected were: Jason Frederick, Co-Publisher of the Trenton Hitchcock County News, vice president; Peggy Year, Co-Publisher of the Hartington Cedar County News, treasurer.

New to the board for a three year term is Kevin Peterson, Publisher of the Wayne Herald. Rod Worrell, Publisher of the Ainsworth Star-Journal, will serve as immediate past president.

Continuing their terms as board of directors of NPA are: Kevin Zadina, Publisher of the Seward County Independent; Tom Shaal, Publisher of the Alliance Times-Herald; Lori Pankonin, Co-Publisher of the Imperial Republican; and Terrie Baker, Publisher of the North Platte Telegraph; and Deb McCaslin, Editor of the Broken Bow Custer Co. Chief.

Elected by the Nebraska Press Advertising Service (NPAS) were:

President: Shary Skiles, Publisher of the McCook Gazette and Gerri Peterson, Publisher of the Mullen Hooker County Tribune, vice president.

New to the board for a three year term is Nathan Arneal, Publisher of the North Bend Eagle.

Continuing their terms on the board of directors of NPAS are: Greg Awtry, Publisher of the Scottsbluff Star-Herald; Tory Duncan, Editor of the Sutton Clay County News; and Chris Rhoades, General Manager, South Sioux City Dakota County Star.

Mike Edgecombe, Publisher of the Hebron Journal-Register, will serve as immediate past president.

Allen J. Beermann is executive director of both organizations.

The Nebraska Press Association membership includes 171 weekly and daily newspapers with a total paid circulation in excess of 500,000 persons. It was founded in 1873. NPAS includes all of the NPA membership and was founded in 1951.
