Weekly newspapers: Sign up for 2019 Summer Internship Scholarship Program

Sign up deadline for newspapers is Fri, Feb. 15

This is year three for the NPA Foundation's Summer Internship Scholarship Program. Six $1,000 internship scholarships will be available to current Nebraska college students who successfully complete an eight-week summer internship program at a weekly newspaper in Nebraska.

The program is a way to introduce Nebraska journalism students to the challenges and rewards of community journalism, and give students hands-on experiences that will allow them to enhance their skills. The hope is that with this type of experience under their belts, former interns will become more involved in community journalism, either by working at or buying a Nebraska weekly, to continue the vital role newspapers play in our rural communities.

Program guidelines for participating weeklies:

- Deadline for weekly papers to sign up to participate is Friday, February 15. Contact Susan Watson nebpress@nebpress.com, or 800-369-2850.
- Newspapers that participated in the 2018 internship program can sign up for 2019. Students that participated as interns in the 2018 program are not eligible for the 2019.
- The program is available only to students enrolled in a Nebraska college or university and majoring in journalism, communications or advertising/marketing. Interns can be involved in any aspect of journalism — reporting, photography, videography, graphic art/design, advertising/marketing or social media. Each employer will define the specifics of the job.
- Participating newspapers must agree to pay interns a living wage, a housing stipend, and provide on-site, hands-on experience at your newspaper.
- Internships will take place summer of 2019; students must submit letters, resumes and work samples to NPA by March 15, 2019; participating newspapers will then contact students directly to set up interviews, make offers, etc.
- Once the internship is successfully completed, both the intern and the participating paper must submit close-out evaluations to NPA. Upon completion, the student will receive a $1,000 scholarship from the Foundation (check sent to their school for deposit into student's account) to assist with the next semester's tuition.

IMPORTANT REMINDER TO OUR MEMBERS: NSAA policies in effect at State Wrestling Championships, Feb. 14-16, in Omaha

State H.S. Wrestling Championships in Omaha are right around the corner, and NPA is sending a strong reminder to our newspapers to follow the Nebr. School Activities Assn. (NSAA) policies, which includes that those covering and taking pictures of their schools at state wrestling are not allowed to wear their school shirts or any other school attire. If you are working media, which includes anyone on the floor taking pictures or video, this policy applies to you.

- NSAA's attire/conduct/media entrance policies will be strictly enforced by meet officials. Those not following these policies could lose their credentials or be denied entrance to the Media Room and the floor.
- Event details and media logistics for the NSAA Individual Wrestling Championships are available at this link: <http://nsaahome.org/media/wrest.pdf>. Be sure to share this link with anyone that will be attending this event as media representatives.

A few NSAA policy points of emphasis for this event:

CONDUCT/ETIQUETTE: Team Attire (booster buttons, school team shirts, etc.) will not be permitted by members of the working media. Cheering directed toward a specific school or participant will not be allowed.

CLEAR BAG POLICY: The clear bag policy is a spectator policy, used at all spectator entrances. It WILL NOT be enforced at the EAST LOWER LEVEL entrance for media. If media members use a spectator entrance, they will be subject to the policy.

PARKING: A limited number of media parking passes are available upon request for parking Lot A. A parking map is included in the logistics link above. To request your pass, please email: amccoy@nsaahome.org by 12 PM on Friday, February 8th to have a pass mailed to you. Make sure to specify your mailing address for the pass. Requests for multiple passes will most likely be denied because of the limited number of spots.

BROADCASTING: Broadcast request forms, <http://nsaahome.org/media/audio.pdf>, must be submitted by Monday, February 11th, at 12 PM. Please email those requests to amccoy@nsaahome.org.

Leadership Nebraska (Harpst) Award

The Leadership Nebraska Award was created and funded by the Harpst Family to recognize a Nebraska Press Association newspaper or publisher (or executive of such paper) that best illustrates efforts in promoting leadership within their community such as news articles about youth groups that foster leadership, community leadership organizations and their participants, or information about alumni of leadership groups and success stories as these individuals go on to actual community leadership posts. This award is to recognize leadership and leadership potential, not service or mere participation in an activity or event. The award donors “believe it is important to develop leaders in Nebraska at all levels” and this is consistent with leadership programs that are active in many Nebraska communities, and is a further incentive for our newspapers to promote and develop future leaders.

Deadline to submit Harpst Leadership nominations is February 22, 2019.

*CORRECTION: The Harpst Leadership Award will be presented at the Saturday luncheon (April 6) during the 2019 NPA Annual Convention in Kearney, NE.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG NEBRASKA JOURNALIST AWARD

NEBRASKA PRESS ASSOCIATION

PURPOSE OF THE AWARD

The OUTSTANDING YOUNG NEBRASKA JOURNALIST AWARD was created and funded in 2001 by Zean and Marilyn Carney. Zean is a past president of the Nebraska Press Association, Nebraska Journalism Hall of Fame inductee, Master Editor-Publisher recipient, and is the retired publisher of the Wahoo Newspaper, Waverly News, Ashland Gazette and David City Banner-Press.

The annual award -- administered by the Nebraska Press Association and the Nebraska Press Advertising Service -- was established to recognize the outstanding work of the state's young journalism talent. The award includes a plaque, $500 cash stipend and recognition at the NPA's annual convention.

The competition is open to all weekly and daily newspaper journalists, including reporters, photographers, graphic designers, production and advertising professionals, working full time for any legal Nebraska newspaper.

One winner and runner-up from all weekly and daily entries will be recognized each year.

The nominee must be under the age of 30, as of December 31 of each competition year. Past winners are not eligible to enter again.

A panel of judges, appointed by the NPA/NPAS executive director, will consider each nominee's professionalism, creativity, career goals, impact on their community, and overall journalistic excellence.

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

1. The young journalist, or his or her editor or publisher, may submit entry nominations. The nominating newspaper, publisher or executives must be members of the Nebraska Press Association.
2. Nominees must submit six examples of their work product (published within the previous 2 years) along with a statement from their editor or publisher, as well as a statement from a person of the nominee's choice attesting to his or her qualifications.
3. Each entry must include a statement of no fewer than 150 words, written by the nominee, telling of his or her journalistic goals. This statement must be included with all other entry materials. The nominee must also submit a photo copy of their Nebraska driver's license.
4. All entries should be sent in a 9x12 envelope to the NPA office in Lincoln (address below). The envelope should be clearly labeled "Outstanding Young Nebraska Journalist Award."
5. If entry materials must be returned after the competition, special arrangements should be made with the NPA office staff. Contest materials, with the permission of nominees, may be used for education or instructional purposes by NPA/NPAS.
6. Winners will give permission to NPA to have their work published in the contest online or print publications produced for conventions or shown during any photo galleries, videos or presentations.
7. The deadline for nomination submissions is February 22, 2019.
8. Information, instructions, guidelines and inquiries will be available from the NPA/NPAS office located at 845 "S" St., Lincoln NE 68508. You can also contact them directly at 800-369-2850, or 402-476-2851. The email address is nebpress@nebpress.com. More information can be found at www.nebpress.com.

Nomination submissions must be received at the NPA office by February 22, 2019!

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA AWARD

Nebraska Press Association

AWARD PROMOTES LEADERSHIP: With the recommendation of past presidents and the approval of the board of directors, the Nebraska Press Association has instituted an award for the newspaper, publisher or executive that best promotes, recognizes or fosters leadership in the community, region or state. Nominees must be members of the Nebraska Press Association. The award is given annually at an appropriate function at the Annual NPA Convention in April.

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA AWARD was conceived by Don Harpst Jr. in loving memory of his father Don Harpst Sr., and was funded by a major gift from the Harpst Family. The award does include an appropriate plaque and a cash award.

This award does not interfere with or compete with the Better Newspaper Contest which is based on journalistic excellence.

Deadline for submission of nominees must be received by the NPA office no later than February 22, 2019.

A panel of five past presidents appointed by the current President will serve as the judges for this award each year.

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA AWARD

Recognizing the Nebraska Newspaper or Publisher that best promotes LEADERSHIP within their community, region, or state

PURPOSE OF THE AWARD

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA Award was created and funded by the Harpst Family to recognize a Nebraska Press Association newspaper or publisher (or executive of such paper) that best illustrates efforts in promoting leadership within their community such as news articles about youth groups that foster leadership, community leadership organizations and their participants, or information about alumni of leadership groups and success stories as these individuals go on to actual community leadership posts. The Harpst Family wishes "that this award be given to the best newspaper coverage for future and present community leaders".

AWARD CRITERIA

The criteria for this award is flexible to accommodate a wide range of journalistic endeavors that promote, recognize or foster leadership or leadership opportunities within a community, region or even the state, including (but not limited to) the following:

- *photo essay
- *editorial or series of editorials
- *news articles
- *feature story or stories
- *promotional activities
- *reward and award programs, and/or recognition events

This award is to recognize leadership and leadership potential, not service or mere participation in an activity or event. The award donors "believe it is important to develop leaders in Nebraska at all levels".

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

1. Nominee newspapers, publishers or executives must be members of the Nebraska Press Association.
2. Nominations should be made in writing and should include biographical information, along with any appropriate supporting documents explaining the reasons the nominee should receive the award. Letters and exhibits supporting the nominee are welcome.
3. No limitations are placed on the length of such information submitted, but conciseness and clarity are suggested, even encouraged.
4. Artistic qualities of the nomination submissions (such as the use of graphics, photographs, etc.) will not be considered in the selection of the award recipient.
5. Any Nebraska Press Association member can submit a nomination.
6. Award nominations can carry over for two years, after which a new nomination must be submitted, if the nominee does not win in the first year of nomination.
7. No entry fee shall be required.

JUDGES

Nominations will be evaluated by The Leadership Nebraska Award Committee. This committee shall have a membership of five active Nebraska Press Association Past Presidents. Should a member of the Award Committee be nominated for the award, he/she will be eligible for the nomination and award, but be disqualified from serving on the committee, and a replacement will be appointed by the President or Vice President.

AWARD PRESENTATION

This Leadership Nebraska Award is given by the Harpst Family in loving memory of Don Harpst, Sr. His biography here follows:

The first thing Don Harpst Sr. did when he bought "The Indianola Reporter" in 1940, was to organize the Rotary Club. From there leadership developed among its members. Since then and subsequent years community leadership was visible in other newspapers that he purchased in Cambridge, Wilsonville, Eustis and Curtis. Harpst lost his father at the age of 10 and his mother moved the family from Ohio to Southern Texas where she bought a weekly newspaper in LaFeria. Don learned the trade and bought his first newspaper on a "note and a prayer"! He became active in the Nebraska Press Association in 1957 and served as President in 1965. Don Harpst Sr. died in 1984 and is buried in Cambridge.

Submission of nominees must be received in the NPA office by February 22, 2019.

Nebraska Journalism Hall of Fame

Deadline for nominations is March 15, 2019.

It is time to nominate distinguished journalists for our Hall of Fame. This is a most appropriate way to honor those who have honored us by their contributions to our profession and to our state and nation.

Please enter the name(s) of one or more persons you believe deserve this honor. Here are the rules:

1. Persons living or dead may be nominated.
2. Nominees should have made a significant contribution to print, their communities and/or their state and nation.
3. Nominees may come from any facet of the newspaper business, such as news, business, management, photography or any combinations.
4. Nominees must have spent a significant percentage of their newspaper careers in Nebraska.

Other considerations of importance:

- Winners of the Master Editor-Publisher Award are not automatically nominated.
- Nominees not selected this year will automatically be eligible for consideration the following year, but no longer than that.
- Nominations may come from persons not affiliated with NPA.
- Additions to the Hall of Fame may or may not be an annual event and there is no established maximum or minimum number for admission at one time.

Nominations must include a completed form (see reverse), a detailed biography of the nominee and other appropriate documentation.

The selection committee will consist of the president of Nebraska Press Association who shall be chairman, the vice president, and the immediate past president of the association, the Dean of the University of Nebraska Journalism College, and one other representative of the Journalism College selected by the Dean. In the event a member of the committee cannot serve, the NPA president shall appoint a replacement for that year.

What is the Hall of Fame?

The Hall of Fame was started in 1973 by Jack Lowe, retired longtime editor and co-publisher of the Sidney Telegraph. The Hall of Fame will honor persons who have distinguished themselves in printed journalism. It was one of the projects of the Jack Lowe Community Journalism Fund at the University of Nebraska College of Journalism and Mass Communications. Since the Hall of Fame started, over 100 journalists have been inducted.
