Leadership Nebraska (Harpst) Award

The Leadership Nebraska Award was created and funded by the Harpst Family to recognize a Nebraska Press Association newspaper or publisher (or executive of such paper) that best illustrates efforts in promoting leadership within their community such as news articles about youth groups that foster leadership, community leadership organizations and their participants, or information about alumni of leadership groups and success stories as these individuals go on to actual community leadership posts.

This award is to recognize leadership and leadership potential, not service or mere participation in an activity or event. The award donors "believe it is important to develop leaders in Nebraska at all levels" and this is consistent with leadership programs that are active in many Nebraska communities, and is a further incentive for our newspapers to promote and develop future leaders.

- Deadline to submit Leadership Nebraska nominations is February 21, 2020.
- Leadership Nebraska Award will be presented at the Saturday, April 18, Awards Luncheon as part of the 2020 NPA Convention, April 17-18, at the Cornhusker Marriott Hotel in Lincoln, NE.

Former Nebraska editor and publisher, Les Mann, dies at 65

Former Nebraska editor and publisher, Les Mann, died December 26, 2019, at home surrounded by family, after a long battle with cancer.

A funeral Mass will be held at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne on Saturday, Jan. 18 at 10:30 a.m., with an interment service in Pendleton, Ore. at a later date.

Donations may be made to Trees, Water, & People or the St. Augustine

Indian Mission in Winnebago. Les's family also encourages his friends to remember him by planting an oak tree this spring.

Les was born in Pendleton, Ore., and received his B.S. degree from the University of Oregon School of Journalism in 1976.

He moved to Nebraska in 1980 to take a position as editor and then publisher of the Chadron Record after spending four years as managing editor of the Daily News Democrat in Festus, MO. While in Missouri he was an adjunct journalism instructor and student newspaper adviser at the Jefferson Junior College in Hillsboro.

In 1992, Mann and his wife Debra moved their family of four children to Wayne, to take a position as publisher and part-owner of the Wayne Herald. Mann also taught journalism courses at Wayne State College and eventually took a position as vice-president and general manager of the Norfolk Daily News, where he worked until 2015. He retired from journalism in 2017 after serving as publisher of the Custer County Chief in Broken Bow.

He served as president of the Nebraska Press Advertising Service in 1990 and was inducted into the Nebraska Journalism Hall of Fame on October 25, 2019, in Lincoln.

Les is survived by his wife, Deb; children, Erin of St. Charles, Mo., Ethan (Tracy Finney) of Centennial, Colo., Elysia (Jon Noble) of Knoxville, Tenn., and Emlyn (Cody Long) of Papillion; and seven grandchildren.

Les had a playful and infectious sense of humor and an unfailing moral compass. He particularly embraced restorative environmental justice, spending much of his leisure time planting trees and tending the land on the family acreage. When not working outdoors, Les enjoyed traveling with his family, listening to St. Louis Cardinals games on the radio, and sampling varieties of scotch.

"An optimist stays up until midnight to see the New Year in. A pessimist stays up to make sure the old year leaves."

Gordon Sheridan Co. Journal-Star begins new year with new owners

As of January 1, 2020, Mandy and Bob Scherer of Martin, SD, have purchased the Gordon Sheridan Co. Journal-Star from Jordan and Rachael Huether.

In 2018, the Scherer's formed Scherer Publishing, LLC, when they purchased the Bennett Co. Booster II, Martin, SD; the Todd Co. Tribune, Mission, SD; Mellette Co. News, White River, SD; and the Fall River Co. Herald Star, in Edgemont and Hot Springs, SD. In addition to the newspaper publishing and printing, the business also offers a variety of other services including photo printing and job printing.

Mandy started her newspaper career when she began working at the Bennett Co. Booster in December, 1999.

No major changes are planned for the Journal-Star and the current staff will not change. The Huethers will both remain at the paper on a part-time basis. Heather will help with circulation and bookkeeping duties, and Jordan will help with writing sports stories and taking photos at sporting events.

The Huethers have owned and published the Journal Star for the past eight years.

Coleridge Blade ceases publication after 131 years

The last issue of The Blade was published January 1, 2020, after 131 years as Coleridge's community newspaper. Current Coleridge Blade subscribers will now have their subscriptions switched over to the Laurel Advocate. Both the Laurel Advocate and the Hartington Cedar Co. News will now begin carrying more Coleridge news.

The Northeast Nebraska News Co., owned by Blade publishers Rob Dump and Peggy Year, purchased the paper in 2006. In the Blade's final issue, Rob Dump and Peggy Year said the decision to close the paper did not come easy and they hated to see the town lose its newspaper, but the paper was in jeopardy of losing its Periodical Class Postal Permit, which it needed to mail the paper out each week.

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA AWARD

Nominees must be members of the Nebraska Press Association. The award is given annually at an appropriate function at the Annual NPA Convention in April.

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA AWARD was conceived by Don Harpst Jr. in loving memory of his father Don Harpst Sr., and was funded by a major gift from the Harpst Family. The award does include an appropriate plaque and a cash award.

This award does not interfere with or compete with the Better Newspaper Contest which is based on journalistic excellence.

Deadline for submission of nominees must be received by the NPA office by February 21, 2020.

A panel of five past presidents appointed by the current President will serve as the judges for this award each year.

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA AWARD

Recognizing the Nebraska Newspaper or Publisher that best promotes LEADERSHIP within their community, region, or state

PURPOSE OF THE AWARD

THE LEADERSHIP NEBRASKA Award was created and funded by the Harpst Family to recognize a Nebraska Press Association newspaper or publisher (or executive of such paper) that best illustrates efforts in promoting leadership within their community such as news articles about youth groups that foster leadership, community leadership organizations and their participants, or information about alumni of leadership groups and success stories as these individuals go on to actual community leadership posts. The Harpst Family wishes "that this award be given to the best newspaper coverage for future and present community leaders".

AWARD CRITERIA

The criteria for this award is flexible to accommodate a wide range of journalistic endeavors that promote, recognize or foster leadership or leadership opportunities within a community, region or even the state, including (but not limited to) the following:

- *photo essay
- *editorial or series of editorials
- *news articles
- *feature story or stories
- *promotional activities
- *reward and award programs, and/or recognition events

This award is to recognize leadership and leadership potential, not service or mere participation in an activity or event. The award donors "believe it is important to develop leaders in Nebraska at all levels".

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

1. Nominee newspapers, publishers or executives must be members of the Nebraska Press Association.
2. Nominations should be made in writing and should include biographical information, along with any appropriate supporting documents explaining the reasons the nominee should receive the award. Letters and exhibits supporting the nominee are welcome.
3. No limitations are placed on the length of such information submitted, but conciseness and clarity are suggested, even encouraged.
4. Artistic qualities of the nomination submissions (such as the use of graphics, photographs, etc.) will not be considered in the selection of the award recipient.
5. Any Nebraska Press Association member can submit a nomination.
6. Award nominations can carry over for two years, after which a new nomination must be submitted, if the nominee does not win in the first year of nomination.
7. No entry fee shall be required.

JUDGES

Nominations will be evaluated by The Leadership Nebraska Award Committee. This committee shall have a membership of five active Nebraska Press Association Past Presidents. Should a member of the Award Committee be nominated for the award, he/she will be eligible for the nomination and award, but be disqualified from serving on the committee, and a replacement will be appointed by the President or Vice President.

AWARD PRESENTATION

This Leadership Nebraska Award is given by the Harpst Family in loving memory of Don Harpst, Sr. His biography here follows:

The first thing Don Harpst Sr. did when he bought "The Indianola Reporter" in 1940, was to organize the Rotary Club. From there leadership developed among its members. Since then and subsequent years community leadership was visible in other newspapers that he purchased in Cambridge, Wilsonville, Eustis and Curtis. Harpst lost his father at the age of 10 and his mother moved the family from Ohio to Southern Texas where she bought a weekly newspaper in LaFeria. Don learned the trade and bought his first newspaper on a "note and a prayer"! He became active in the Nebraska Press Association in 1957 and served as President in 1965. Don Harpst Sr. died in 1984 and is buried in Cambridge.

Submission of nominees must be received in the NPA office by February 21, 2020.
