Longtime Grand Island Independent columnist dies

Longtime Grand Island Independent family life columnist Billy Wetterer died February 12, 2020, at CHI Health St. Francis in Grand Island.

Wetterer worked for The Independent for 23 years as family life editor; retiring in 1995. During retirement she continued to write a column that was featured in the Occasions section of the Sunday Independent until last year.

For many years Wetterer was actively involved in several Grand Island area organizations. She and her husband, William had 10 children and she was involved in and honored by the Nebraska Mothers Association.

Funeral services for Wetterer, 92, were held February 17 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wood River. She is survived by nine children, 20 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Call for nominations: Nebraska Journalism Hall of Fame

Nomination deadline: March 16

(2020 inductees will be announced in May)

Sunshine Week: It's Your Right to Know - March 15-21, 2020

Join news organizations across the country in the discussion about the importance of access to public information and open government. Remind your readers of the role you've played in fighting for their right to know.

Newspapers are encouraged to write your own editorials, stories or columns, or use the free columns, cartoons and graphics in the Sunshine Week Toolkit.

Find all the free resources you need to promote Sunshine Week at <http://sunshineweek.org/>.

Women in Journalism Workshop, May 1-3, in Columbia, MO

The Women in Journalism Workshop at the Donald W. Reynolds Journalism Institute is an annual workshop that focuses on challenges, accomplishments and issues specific to women in the journalism industry today.

We want to help build safer, more diverse and innovative newsrooms to serve our communities worldwide. This year's workshop will be May 1-3, 2020, University of Missouri School of Journalism in Columbia, MO.

This year we will be diving into how to innovate the way we cover stories, the management of our newsrooms and the tools we use. Sessions include self-care, HEAT training, data analysis, machine learning and AI for journalism, immersive storytelling, secondary trauma, advocating for yourself, applying for grants and more.

For more information and to apply for the event:

Sign up now: NewsTrain early-bird rate increases on March 5

Nebraska journalists who want to attend NewsTrain at the College of Journalism and Mass Communications at UNL on Saturday, April 4 can still get the early-bird registration rate of $75, but the deadline is fast approaching. Registration rate increases to $85 on March 5.

Tuition includes a light breakfast and lunch, plus a full day of training on the latest digital journalism tools.

Those registering for NewsTrain can also attend the free Google tools training on Friday afternoon, April 3. SPJ trainer and UNL alum Mike Reilley will be teaching you about all the latest Google tools. Register for that when you register for NewsTrain.

Register here and get more information:

<http://bit.ly/LincolnNewsTrain2020>

NewsTrain is a full day of training where you will learn to:

- Use social media to locate diverse expert and “real people” sources, listen to your community and identify news stories, crowdsource using Google Forms and call-outs, and create a social dossier on a person in the news.
- Edit short news videos using an app on your smart-phone.
- Verify user-generated images and other content on social media on deadline.
- Make smart choices among alternative ways to tell a story on mobile to get the maximum audience impact with the least expenditure of time, energy and effort.
- Identify five ways to find relevant databases and formulate questions to identify stories in the data. Leave with at least one story idea using data that you can do now.

Questions? Email UNL journalism professor Jessica Fargen Walsh at jwalsh5@unl.edu.

National Day of Unplugging starts at sundown March 6

No celebrating required — just switch off your electronics for 24 hours and ... read a book or something? If you need a little help, the National Day of Unplugging website offers toolkits, conversation starters and activity guides.

HOW TO MAKE HARD FACTS EASY TO READ

BY ROY PETER CLARK

- 1 You may wind up with thousands of readers, but begin in your head with just one.
- 2 Create the illusion of conversation.
- 3 Slow down the pace of information, especially at points of complexity.
- 4 Either avoid jargon — or translate it.
- 5 Use as few numbers as will get the job done.
- 6 Lift the heavy cargo out of the text and put it in a chart or graphic.
- 7 Reveal how the reader can use the information.
- 8 Only quote people who can make things clearer than you can.
- 9 Look for opportunities to tell stories — even in miniature.
- 10 One human is more memorable than tons of data.
- 11 Reveal secrets.
- 12 Read your draft aloud.

Russell Viers - Adobe Certified Instructor, Trainer, Consultant

Russell Viers is an Adobe Certified Instructor in InDesign, Photoshop, and Illustrator who specializes in print production. He started his career in 1981 as a reporter/photographer for a small daily newspaper and through the years has been involved in most aspects of publishing. A professional Adobe trainer since 1997, he travels the world sharing his expertise with newspaper and magazine professionals to help them work faster and create better files. Russell is a frequent speaker at press association conventions and international events.

Back by popular demand.
Russell's sessions are always requested by our members!

- Adobe: InDesign Secrets (Fri & repeated Sat)

With each release of InDesign there are new tools to speed production and improve quality, and CC 2019 is no different. But even if we go all the way back to InDesign 1.0 in 1999, there are hidden goodies that help do our jobs better, if we only knew they existed and how to use them.

- Easily and Quickly Sort, Organize and Process Your Photos (Sat)

Are you spending too much time looking through your digital photos trying to find the best ones, only to settle on whatever's "good enough" after a few minutes? With today's digital cameras, we should be taking LOTS and LOTS of photographs of every event. Taking them is easy... it's what to do next that can be a killer. With Adobe's Bridge and Photoshop, you already have one of the most powerful photo-processing duos on the planet. Learn how to use them together properly to slice your photo production time dramatically, improve quality and leave your photos in a format that is flexible for changing later.

- Preparing Graphics for Web and Print (Sat)

Graphics for print don't work for the web and vice versa. Learn the differences between the two and how you can NOT duplicate your work. What is the value of RGB for print and web is just one important lesson, but also resolution, file format, vector vs. raster, finding the smallest file size for web, and more.

GENERAL SESSION: "The State of Youth Culture" - Clint! Runge, Managing Director, Archrival (Sat)

Clint! Runge is Co-founder and Managing Director of Archrival, a youth culture agency that reinvents how brands win the hearts and minds of young adults. Clint! and team light the fires for clients such as Red Bull, Adidas, Hollister and Spotify by going against the grain of traditional marketing to build brand love, loyalty and sales with teens to twenty-somethings. While he's the kind of guy who likes cats and card tricks, his saving grace is that he does great creative. He's won as many awards as he's had all-nighters, leading Archrival to an Ad Age Agency of the Year and Inc Magazine's Top 1000. Most frightening of all, Runge taught creative strategy at the University of Nebraska for 15 years. Lastly, he considers himself a professional rock, paper, scissors athlete and welcomes your challenge.

- Generations change. Tastes change. Young adults developed their habits, preferences and opinions in a different world than most of us did. Trying to understand it all can be overwhelming if brands, politicians, institutions and parents place their generational expectations on the one growing up today.
- In this general session presentation, Clint! will outline the value systems, behaviors and driving beliefs that other generations can use to be more relevant. Whether its a company realigning its marketing, an organization futureproofing its mission or a grandparent figuring out their grandson, this hour will prove invaluable to creating new conversation.
- Topics include deep dives into identity, world view, consumerism, adulting, sports, creativity, entertainment, technology and loyalty with a bent towards understanding on the why behind the trend.

"Meet the Vendors" at Friday's lunch!

Nathan Arneal - Publisher of North Bend Eagle & NPAS/OnePress President

Nathan Arneal has been owner, publisher, editor, sports writer and photographer of the North Bend Eagle since 2006. Prior to buying The Eagle, Nathan taught English and journalism at Columbus Scotus High School, and was the adviser for the school's student newspaper.

- Newswriting 101 (Sat)

If you have a college degree in journalism... this probably isn't the session for you. We will look at the basics of newswriting and how to make your writing easier to read and appealing to your readers. Topics will include attribution, quotes, AP style and more.

- Photography 101 (Sat)

This session is aimed at photography novices. We will look at the basics of photography and tips on how to create appealing news and sports images. We will also look how to adjust camera settings to suit your situation. Bring your camera!

Legal Hotline Q&A - Shawn Renner, Cline Williams law firm (Fri)

*Cline Williams' Attorney, Shawn Renner, advises media on free speech, open meetings and other issues. Join this informal Q&A session as Shawn reviews some of the more frequent questions and topics that the Legal Hotline received from our newspapers over the past year. This always-popular session covers topics from the Nebraska Press Association's Legal Hotline, a free service to our member newspapers that provides solid, practical advice with the goal of preventing legal problems. Bring your legal questions!

Great Idea Exchange - Share ideas, get ideas! (Sat)

Bring your best ideas that have worked for your newspaper - promotions, special sections or niche products that have generated revenue; ways to increase subscribers; tips on engaging your readers, and more. Learn & share. NNA President, Matt Adelman will moderator this always-popular session.

When a Natural Disaster Hits Your Community - Panel Discussion (day TBA)

Floods, fire, hail, wind damage - they can damage your newspaper office and an entire community. Hear from some of our newspapers who've experienced these events first-hand. How did they communicate with their readers and share vital information - often with limited resources? What did they learn about having a plan in place when disaster strikes? Some of the UNL J-School students who provided local reporting & assistance to Nebraska newspapers during last years' floods will also be on the panel.

Nebraska Journalism Hall of Fame

Deadline for nominations is March 16, 2020.

It is time to nominate distinguished journalists for our Hall of Fame. This is a most appropriate way to honor those who have honored us by their contributions to our profession and to our state and nation.

Please enter the name(s) of one or more persons you believe deserve this honor. Here are the rules:

1. Persons living or dead may be nominated.
2. Nominees should have made a significant contribution to print, their communities and/or their state and nation.
3. Nominees may come from any facet of the newspaper business, such as news, business, management, photography or any combinations.
4. Nominees must have spent a significant percentage of their newspaper careers in Nebraska.

Other considerations of importance:

- Winners of the Master Editor-Publisher Award are not automatically nominated.
- Nominees not selected this year will automatically be eligible for consideration the following year, but no longer than that.
- Nominations may come from persons not affiliated with NPA.
- Additions to the Hall of Fame may or may not be an annual event and there is no established maximum or minimum number for admission at one time.

Nominations must include a completed form (see reverse), a detailed biography of the nominee and other appropriate documentation.

The selection committee will consist of the president of Nebraska Press Association who shall be chairman, the vice president, and the immediate past president of the association, the Dean of the University of Nebraska Journalism College, and one other representative of the Journalism College selected by the Dean. In the event a member of the committee cannot serve, the NPA president shall appoint a replacement for that year.

Previous inductees include: Norris Alfred, Tom Allan, Harold Andersen, Bess Furman Armstrong, Allen J. Beermann, Charlyne Radke Berens, Dr. A. L.
